Words From The Product Designer

Hi Bookworms,

This is Mason from Glocusent, and it is so nice to connect with you through our original designed product. Some of you are old friends of Glocusent, we really appreciate your support and genuine feedback on our products.

Our company's philosophy has always been to listen to customers' opinions. The Glocusent Upgraded LED Neck Reading Light is upgraded based on our customers' voices. This light is only 4.4 oz, much lighter than the first generation. It narrowed the width of the neck area to fit your neck more comfortably and get more steady. In terms of function, we optimized the function of the button and you only need one press for on/off. Plus, we have added a 30-minute timer function. It saves your hassles to turn it off when your eyelids are fighting during reading in bed.

Finally, we would like to Specially thank all customers who have provided feedback for us, especially the following names: John Sidaros, Peter Ordal, Sunil, Laurie Warner, Marco Vitale, Sandra Och, Laurence T.

We will continue to listen to everyone's voice. All feedback, ideas, or suggestions are welcome to flow into our mailbox.

We truly hope that this upgraded LED neck reading light can bring you joy and fun when you do readings, knittings, and other daily activities.

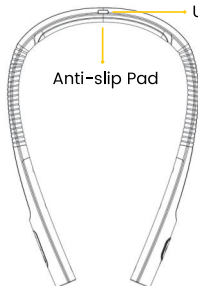

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,
Mason
